

Here, there, and everywhere

By Necce Regis | GLOBE CORRESPONDENT JULY 14, 2017

TRAVEL LIKE A LOCAL IN NYC

You've seen the Empire State Building and the lights of Broadway. Now what? Those looking for affordable and off-the-grid experiences in the Big Apple may want to check out LOCALIKE New York, an innovative online service that curates customized tips on where to go and what to do away from traditional tourist areas. The user-friendly service gathers information based from your preferences via an online profile (complete with 40-plus categories) that generates unique suggestions based on local insider-tips and recommendations. For example, dine at an exclusive Japanese restaurant that doesn't publish its phone number, or find a neighborhood jazz bar tucked in the basement of an Italian restaurant. Choose one of two options: NEW YORK SELECTION ($49) features tips with addresses, subway connections and maps; NEW YORK PERSONAL ($79) includes a detailed itinerary based on your travel profile. www.localike-newyork.com.